Asia-Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art – APT 2002 Unlock your senses and immerse yourself in the visual, spiritual and cultural world of APT 2002.
Featuring the work of seventeen innovative and influential artists and performers from Asia, Australia and the Pacific, APT 2002 continues the Queensland Art Gallery's role as a major contributor to the exhibition and discussion of contemporary art.
The artists represented in APT 2002 are:
Montien Boonma [Thailand], Eugene Carchesio [Australia], Heri Dono
[Indonesia], Joan Grounds [USA/Australia], Ralph Hotere [Aotearoa New Zealand], Yayoi Kusama [Japan], Lee U-fan [South Korea/Japan], Jose Legaspi [Philippines], Michael Ming Hong Lin
[Taiwan], Nalini Malani [India], Nam June Paik [South Korea/USA], 'Pasifika Divas' [Pacific Islands and Aotearoa New Zealand], Lisa Reihana [Aotearoa New Zealand], Michael Riley [Australia], Song Dong [China], Suh Do-Ho [South Korea/USA] and Howard Taylor [Australia]. Following the official opening on 12th, an extensive programme of publicevents from Friday 13th-Sunday 15th, will include artist talks, performances, lectures and discussions.
Most, if not all, these events will be free.
Various public programmes will continue for the duration of APT2002 – keep watching our website: [www.qag.qld.gov.au/apt2002] as these will be updated there. The much anticipated return of Kids' APT will again present unique interactive artworks and activities to delight young visitors and families. In a new initiative, Kids' APT 2002 will incorporate a children's cultural festival over the summer holidays. The full-colour publication accompanying APT 2002 will feature significant essays on participating artists and a number of key commissioned texts that explore issues central to APT 2002 artists and ideas
